

...cause it's us against them!

Rodent Control - Management & Treatment

What rodents are a pest in Australia?

There are three main pest species of rodents in Australia:

- House Mouse
- Roof Rat
- Norway Rat

They are common in the main population centres in Australia and most countries throughout the world.

What damage do rodents cause?

- agricultural crops
- Sugar cane
- vegetable gardens
- fruit & nut trees
- stored food products
- structural components of buildings
- gnawed electrical cables leading to fires